Fayez Mohamed Obaid Alnaqbi

Emirati calligrapher born in Ras Al Khaimah. He obtained an MSc in Organizational Excellence from Hamdan Bin Mohammed Smart University (HBMSU) in 2013. Fayez is an Abu Dhabi Government employee who studied at the hands of Calligrapher Hossam Khurshid in Abu Dhabi. His journey in calligraphy started by examining the alphabet and how to connect letters in Naskh calligraphy, before moving on to words, sentences, and lines. He then completed his Arabic calligraphy studies at the Fujairah Fine Arts Academy. In Fujairah, he studied Naskh calligraphy at the hand of calligrapher Mohamed Abu Al Majd and later at the hands of calligraphers Mohsen Nassar and Ahmad Adil. Currently, Fayez is looking forward to studying other types of Arabic calligraphy. Alnaqbi has produced three artworks of Naskh calligraphy for the Abu Dhabi International Hunting and Equestrian Exhibition (ADIHEX) in 2021 and 2022. He also participated in the Al Owais Symposium on Arabic Calligraphy and the Sharjah Calligraphy Forum, while also displaying his paintings at the Fujairah Fine Arts Academy. He is also a professional photographer, a founder member of the Emirates Falcons Photography Society, a participant in numerous art competitions and exhibitions in the UAE, and an award-winning photographer. He specializes in architectural photography and landscape photography and was able to document many of the urban developments the country has seen.

Roa'

Al Madani

Roa' first developed an interest in art during university and started oil painting during her free time. She created paintings of nature and still-life, focusing on the beauty of flowers and peaceful environments. At a later stage, she took an interest in the details of the human face and how each feature and expression holds a story behind it. She created detailed pencil drawings and spent hours emphasising on each part, such as the reflection in the eyes and the skin texture. Roa' started sharing her art on her Instagram page and soon became widely recognised by international artists and grew a fanbase. From the admiration she received, she decided to push herself further and experimented with colours. Roa' is now specialised in realistic oil paint and graphite, her art stands out due to its intricate details and vibrant colours. Her patience and appreciation of beauty in the details of God's creations are what bring life to her art – which are often mistaken for realistic photos. With a passion for sharing her skills with aspiring artists, Roa' offers oil painting and graphite workshops. Roa' has also received several requests from royal families around the Emirates, as well as multiple private and public sectors. She has displayed her artwork in over 25 exhibitions worldwide, and has won prestigious awards from various global art competitions.

Shamma Ali Al Ameri

Emirati artist whose work has been exhibited in several events. Hailing from an artistic family, she started her painting journey in childhood and continued to hone her skills to reach special levels of creativity and excellence. Al Ameri is a mother of two children of determination and uses her life challenges to further develop her artistic skills and mastery. Her paintings show an excellent and realistic portrayal of different facial features, with a celebration of details and beauty. Al Ameri has a passion for creating realistic paintings of facial features. She carefully chooses her subjects and tries to distinguish between and celebrate each person's unique facial features, whether she is painting the elderly or a child. Her message to the UAE and to the world is that "a mother of children of determination can do the impossible." Art and creativity are how we deal with difficulties.

Wedad Salem Abdullah AlKindi

Fine artist and a graduate from the United Arab Emirates University, with a major in mechanical engineering. Her career started as a passion for art from an early age. Self-taught, she relied on continuous reading, experimentation, and practice. AlKindi participated in several exhibitions while at university but stopped exhibiting after graduation. She came back after an eight-year break with a wood-burning piece portraying Sheikh Mohamed Bin Zayed (owned by Sheikh Zaki Nusseibeh). She followed this with a second wood-burning piece portraying a palm tree, which was entered into ADIHEX. Her work also includes working with dry ink, graphite, watercolors, and acrylic.
